Just imagine...

From the moment you arrive, you will feel nurtured for the days ahead.

Your Friday afternoon begins with a warm welcome and introductions, where we share our passions and discuss an outline for our time together. We then focus on releasing resistance and you'll learn how to discover your blocks that could sabotage your business. Your immersion starts with discovering the Seven Step Roadmap for a successful and sustainable Six-Figure Business.

Your evening will finish with a fun welcome dinner where you will create connections that will last well beyond our time together.

Saturday is the day we really roll up our sleeves and piece-by-piece, design the building blocks of your successful Six-Figure Soul Business.

By the end of the day, you will be able to confidently talk about your special contributions to the world and who you help. You will have the chance to dream big and put that dream out there! You'll start manifesting and energising your future life right away.

Sunday, we continue the good work as we reshape the current masculine paradigm. Today is all about creating the essential packages to earn the revenue you need to fund your new lifestyle, while maintaining the integrity of who you are and enjoying a profitable business on your terms. Today is about setting you up for sustainable success.

Monday is our final day and we spend the morning bringing it all together. Today is about feminine flow, interaction and connection. Learn the modern feminine sales strategies and practice presenting your work to each other and the group. This work will build your confidence so that you can effortlessly tell others what you do, how you help them and begin bringing in paying clients with ease.

Our time together closes with a heartfelt ritual to reinforce the bonds we have made. You will feel empowered and ready to rise as a Leader of the Wellness Revolution.

There will be time for quiet reflection and group work with lots of opportunities for questions and guidance. You will feel included and supported every step of the way.
